FILTRATION TECHNOLOGY
FOR THE MILLING
INDUSTRY

INGRAINED IN FILTRATION

Donaldson is a trusted supplier of industrial air filtration, providing effective solutions for grain milling applications. Our filtration expertise, wide breadth of product offerings, and unrivaled product support optimize filtration performance and help reduce long-term cost of operation. We offer an extensive range of dust collectors, replacement filters, parts and services to help you keep your process running efficiently, from incoming grain to packaged product.

Extensive Filtration Expertise

Donaldson has dust collection and combustible dust mitigation solutions to fit a variety of milling filtration applications. Our products provide you with a wide selection of options to address critical housekeeping issues.

Combustible Dust Mitigation

We work with you to support your fire and explosion prevention and protection strategies, such as explosion venting.

Ledgeless Filter Bottom

Available with unique ledgeless/star bottom design for use in applications where complete residual dust release is desired.

Dura-Life™ Media

Engineered for robust surface loading, excellent pressure drop, long bag life, and low maintenance, which support energy savings and filtration efficiency.

A Bounty of Product Offerings

We provide a variety of product options to address your nuisance dust from bin venting, bag dumping, mixing and blending, material handling, and packaging.

PowerCore™ CPV Bin Vent Collector

Ideal for small spaces, the PowerCore CPV is an excellent choice for applications with high airflow, high dust loading, or fine particulate operations.

Dalamatric™ Baghouse Collector

The Dalamatric is an optimal choice for sticky dust, humid environments or other challenging dust collection applications.

RF Baghouse Collector

A rugged, high performance baghouse collector is ideal for applications with heavy dustloads and large air volumes. It uses collector provided non-compressed air for filter cleaning.

Pleated Bag Filtration Solutions

Advanced filtration technologies provide excellent performance and help reduce operating expenses. Food contact compliant filter configurations are available.
